Animal Welfare League of Frederick County	AWLFC is an all-volunteer, no-kill animal welfare organization. We promote the humane treatment of all animals through education, advocacy, and collaboration with other humane organizations. We rescue homeless cats and special needs dogs in Frederick County, rehabilitating them for adoption to families. Our Community Food Bank provides access to free pet food, litter, and other supplies. Many beneficiaries of this service are senior citizens on fixed incomes and disabled residents with limited funds. AWLFC provides referrals to participating vets for low-cost pet spay/neuters and periodically runs free or low cost spay/neuter events. The AWLFC TNR program traps, sterilizes, vaccinates, and returns feral or at-large cats to their homes. Since 2001, we have helped hundreds of Frederick property owners, farmers, and homeowners. Cats or kittens with the potential to be socialized are brought into our Foster and Adoption Program.	Animal Welfare	Health ; Children & Families ; Mental Health ; Seniors	14,672.16

STEM ENABLE INC	STEM ENABLE INC is a 501c3 organization incorporated on 6/6/2016 and got its non-profit status on 03/10/2017. We engage students in critical subjects needed in the 21st century of STEM and applied subjects. Shortage in STEM skills is a national problem but the situation is more dire for students from disadvantaged communities. This is usually due to lack of exposure and resources. Through this exposure students can begin to see themselves in these crucial fields and have the full confidence that they can do it. Learning is a scope that begins with awareness training and then education. Education opens opportunities that drive economic development and growth. A healthy nation can then carry out its activities successfully. Hence the mission and vision of STEM ENABLE INC.  Our mission is to support a holistic innovative and efficient knowledge of STEM and applied subjects by empowering, engaging,, and equipping students from disadvantaged backgrounds by building the pipeline early. The Global Z Recording Project	MISSION STATEMENT: Uniting culturally diverse student musicians through educational virtual audio/video production experiences. We unite student musicians from diverse backgrounds to create original commercial-quality music. Scholars teach virtual audio production &amp; collaboration skills, build community, and promote dialogue on the value and acceptance of diverse others, civility, democratic processes, and creating cross-cultural friendships. We explore how culture influences musical genres, what it means to be a musician, and the power musicians have to make positive social change. We give peace a chance through music. Three projects impact Frederick: 'From A To Global Z' is a public-facing educational YouTube channel; library patrons in Frederick and Urbana may record their COVID oral histories which will be part of the state archives; 'Frederick Circle of Musical Unity' unites diverse student musicians through music education, student internships, and audio production.	Arts and Culture	Children & Families	5,000.00
Veteran Enhancement Project Inc.	Utilize cross-service brotherhood and comradery to heal and empower veterans by restoring their confidence and self-esteem through facilitating/financing their training in motorcycle repair or other valuable trade; integrating them back into the motorcycle community by constructing motorcycles for veterans with battlefield inflicted disabilities or assisting in motorcycle repairs; providing guidance in securing veteran benefits or care and treatment of veteran related illnesses.	Human Needs - Transportation	Transportation	5,000.00
Whole Heart Grief & Loss Resource Center	The Whole Heart Grief &amp; Life Resource Center coaches people so that those impacted by adverse childhood, community, and historical experiences are empowered to use our self-coaching, conflict resolution, and communication tools to wholeheartedly address the issues of life, loss, leadership and legacy while managing the grief that comes from both death and life. We accomplish this via experiential workshops, one-on-one coaching, and facilitator training that yield transformative interpersonal and intrapersonal results. We provide services regardless of a client's ability to pay. While our services are open to all people, we have found that what sets us apart is our constituency (84% of the clients who come to us are women of color), cultural backgrounds (two thirds of our coaches and facilitators are Black women with proximity to those we serve), and cultural sensitivity (via lived experiences that shape our approach, strengthen our relationships, and make us relatable and influential).	Human Needs - Health - Mental	Health ; Health Disparities ; Economic Recovery ; Mental Health	8,422.50
